In order to provide PhD students with additional advice and mentoring throughout their residency, in addition to what is typically offered by their direct supervisor(s), a PhD Supervisory Committee shall be established. This committee must be established within the student's first 6 months from the start of their doctoral program. The supervisory committee is to convene, at a minimum, once per year with the student, to get an update on progress and a summary of a plan going forward while also providing guidance and mentoring and submit a yearly progress report form based on the updates and progress that the student has reported (in the above meeting as well as through the term progress reports).
